AIC (Adult in Custody) Commissary

AIC's in the Grant County Jail with money on their accounts may purchase snack food items, hygiene supplies, envelopes and postage, phone data and other items.

To put money on an AIC's account you may;

Bring in or mail cash, money orders, or bank cashier's checks in any amount up to $1000 dollars. We don't recommend mailing cash. Personal checks may be accepted up to the amount of $20.00 per week.

We also accept payments through PayPal. Send the money to gcjail@grantcounty-or.gov from your PayPal account. Don't forget to leave their name in the notes. If you don't have an account it's easy to set up.

Phone Calls

AIC's have phones in their living areas that allow them to make prepaid calls. Staff will not allow AIC's to use the counties' phone, or deliver messages to the AIC's.

AIC's purchase data by making a request through the kiosk in their dayroom. They can use the data for phone calls, messaging and video visiting. You are also able to log in to the vendors website and create an account. <https://www.encartele.net/>

AIC Mail

AIC's may receive personal mail while in the Grant County Jail. Address the mail to the AIC's name at: 205 S Humbolt St, Canyon City, OR 97820

AIC's may not receive packages. Magazines, newspapers and books mailed by the publisher or commercial book store may be approved. Contact a Sergeant for pre-approval.
